SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY
"REFLECTIONS"
Class of 1980

Editor: Lawrence J. Hamilton
Sponsored by the Circle K Club and the S.D.S.U. Alumni Association
Cover design by Mary Jane Dow
May 25, 1980

It is a great pleasure to offer these introductory remarks as the arrival of the yearbook represents a special moment on any campus. There is a unique anticipation we all share while thumbing through the pages for the first time which creates an aura of enchantment I have never ceased to enjoy. It is within this spirit of excitement that I invite you to read and relive the events of this last year.

The yearbook is more than a simple chronicle of what has transpired. To this year's graduates it is a benchmark which will record their entry into a new phase of life. For those who will remain on campus the yearbook offers an important continuity to the balance between tradition and inevitable change. As time passes the photos and remarks captured on these pages will no doubt provide a rich background for all of us to better understand our past and more fully embrace the future. In a very true sense the yearbook is a family album for a brief period of community when many of our values and aspirations were forged.

As we savor these memories I feel it is quite appropriate to reserve a few moments of thanks for the members of Circle K who worked so diligently to put the yearbook together. Circle K is dedicated to serving others and they have admirably succeeded in that pledge by their willingness to undertake the many challenges of publishing our yearbook.

Best wishes in the year ahead.

SAN DIEGO STATE DRAMA DEPARTMENT PRESENTS:
For you, the 1980 graduating class, this is an important time in your life. This book highlights some of your memories through college. This yearbook was published by Circle K with the help of the Alumni Association. Circle K is the world’s largest collegiate service organization. We are sponsored by Kiwanis, both a non-profit organization, helping those in need. Our services have provided help to the Multiple Sclerosis Society, the Cedar Community Center, the San Diego Center for the Blind, Special Olympics, March of Dimes, and many more groups as well as individuals. The proceeds from the sale of this book make these projects possible.

We would like to specially thank those who helped make this yearbook. Those who provided photographs from the Daily Aztec were: Steve Whalen, Ian Cummings, Scott Linnett, Joel Zwink, and Chris Holbe. Also, to Ron Burns for photographs of the Mission Bay Aquatic Center and Ben Clayton and Joe Renteria for the Alumni Association.

I would like to thank those who were on my staff: Lisa Barnes, Becky Brown, MaryBeth Casement, Sharon Jones, Mark Searses, and Denise Stubbins. This yearbook has been a challenge for us all. Long nights of working on the layout has taught us a lot. Without their support and dedication along with the rest of the Circle K Club in conjunction with the Alumni House, this yearbook would not have been possible.

We wish you the best of luck in your personal and professional lives in the coming years. We hope that you will treasure these memories of the years you spent at San Diego State.

Best Wishes,

Sandy Scruggs
1979 - 80 President

One of San Diego State University's most notable alumni, Marion Ross of "Happy Days" fame, appeared in SDSU's spring theatre production, "The Rivals." Following the premiere performance there was a reception held in Ms. Ross' honor at the Morton Pastor home on Coronado. Guests included Henry "the Fonz" Winkler, Ron Howard, Janet Gaynor and other Hollywood and stage personalities along with over 200 alumni and friends of the University. The proceeds for the event were designated for scholarships in the College of Professional Studies and Fine Arts.

The Alumni & Associates is an organization of friends and former students of San Diego State University who have invested their time and money in making SDSU a great university. It is their primary purpose to bring together alumni, faculty, students and the San Diego community in the mutual support of projects and programs vital to the continuance of a great institution of higher learning. Throughout the year, the Alumni & Associates are involved in activities such as Homecoming, tours, commencement, athletics, annual fund campaign and special alumni and development events. Through this involvement the Alumni & Associates is providing the additional support needed to continue San Diego State University's progressive development into a new decade making it a truly great university.

Congratulations on Everything
Sandy!

If you've got the time, we've got the beer.
Flying through time
Adrift on winds of fate
Our wings ache as we strive
For the sun
Life is in the trying
And joy in each beat that propels us closer
To its peaceful warmth.
