A Message From Pres. Thomas Day...

It is a great pleasure to offer these introductory remarks, as the arrival of the yearbook represents a special moment on any campus. There is a unique anticipation in thumbing through the pages for the first time which creates an aura of enchantment. It is within this spirit of excitement that I invite you to read and relive the events of this last year.

The yearbook is more than a simple chronicle of what has transpired. To this year’s graduates it is a benchmark which will record their entry into a new phase of life. As time passes, the photos and remarks captured on these pages will provide a rich background for all of us to understand better our past and more fully embrace the future. In a very true sense, the yearbook is a family album for a brief period of community when many of our values and aspirations were forged.

As we relive these memories, I feel it is appropriate to reserve a few moments of thanks for the members of Circle K who worked so diligently to put the yearbook together. Circle K is dedicated to serving others, and they have admirably succeeded in that pledge by their willingness to undertake the many challenges of publishing our yearbook.

SDSU TIMELINE

Alpha Chi Omega is built on long lasting friendships. Through our sisterhood we support and encourage each other in that attainment of higher scholastic achievement, social awareness, campus and community involvement. We pride ourselves on the strong bond we shared enabling us to enjoy our college experiences . . . at Alpha Chi there is a sisterhood.

A Message From The Editors ...

Congratulations! You have passed the prominent milestone along your academic journey. We hope the Del Sudoeste reminds you of the memorable moments you experienced at San Diego State University.

This yearbook is one of several projects undertaken yearly by the Alumni & Associates and Circle K Club, the Kiwanis collegiate service organization. Some of the other Circle K projects this year were Beep Baseball with blind children, a Row-a-thon for Multiple Sclerosis, Project Concern and assistance at Special Olympics meets. Revenue from this yearbook provides Circle K the opportunity to continue programs like these.

Our most sincere thanks go to the many members of Circle K who donated time and energy to the production of this yearbook. We also wish to thank the Alumni & Associates and the University Administration for their encouraging support in making this publication possible.

We are truly grateful to the following staff photographers who provided us with a variety of pictures to choose from: Danny Carmain, Bill Carter, JosephFord, Lawrence Hamilton, David Knoll, Russ Lewis, John Meyer, Rafael Miret, Marc Sattler and Mark Searles. The Sports Information and Daily Aztec offices were also most helpful in supplying photos taken by the following people: ErnieAnderson, Chris Brady, Mamet Centorrino, Ian Cummings, Greg Dean, Ron Dipping, Julia Doughty, Mark Harrington, Rick Hazeltine, Stephen Herman, Chris Holme, Scott Linnett, Amalia Luscher, Rick Moore, F. Neil Neeley, Ralph Pennell, Tom Penner, Tom Riggs and Ian Tapp.

In closing, we are thankful for this year's graduates, for without you this book wouldn't be meaningful. Again, we offer congratulations. May you always remember those special times at SDSU.

Hail, Montezuma
We with loyal hearts our homage pay:
Proud working and glorying,
In the Spirit of the Aztec name.
To thee, San Diego.
And the fond traditions, old and new.
A tribute raise of lasting praise and steadfast faith,
Hail, Montezuma.

Hail, Montezuma
We salute thy glorious destiny:
For ever in coming days.
Men and women strong who live in truth.
To thee, San Diego.
And the black and scarlet we'll be true.
An echo comes from Aztec drums through all the Hail, Montezuma.
